

Comparatives and Superlatives

Use the words in the box to complete the table (drag and drop)

better	worse	well	bad
worst	best	good	badly

Adjective	Adverb	Comparative	Superlative

Now write the comparative and superlative forms

Adjective/Adverb	Comparative	Superlative
far

Quantifier	Comparative	Superlative much/many little few

Look at the pictures. Write the correct word in each gap. Use: more, less or fewer.

- There are cherries on the plate than in the basket.
- There is ice in the strawberry cocktail than in the orange cocktail.
- There are ice cubes in the strawberry cocktail than in the orange cocktail.
- There are peaches in the bowl than on the plate.
- There is milk in the jug than in the glass.
- There is milk in the glass than in the jug.

Choose the correct alternative

- Your sister is taller than you are.
- His car is faster than mine. While mine cannot exceed 200 km/h, his has a top speed of 220 km/h.
- I saw her at the party the other night. Her dress was not nearly as skimpy she had described it.
- She can speak English as as she can understand it.
- I feel a better now than I did when you came to visit me.
- This room is as big as the other one. We are much more comfortable now.

