DID HE KNOW HIS NAME?

1 At 5 a.m. on August 31st, 2004, workers at a fast food restaurant in Georgia started work. They checked the ovens, washed and cleaned the restaurant, and took out the garbage. Suddenly, they heard a noise. There was a man behind the garbage cans. They called 911, and the man went to the hospital.

2 The man stayed in the hospital, and the doctors asked him questions. They asked him his name. He thought his name was Benjamin, but he didn't know for sure. He thought he was born on August 29th, 1948. He remembered a place called Denver. He had memories of a meal with cheese in Indianapolis. But who was he? Where did he come from?

3 Eight years later, no one knows who the man is. He invented a new name, Benjamin Kyle. No one reported him as "missing", so he still doesn't know who he is. He found a job, and now he's working.
