Day 1

Here we are in the south of Argentina. The weather is really fine: warm and sunny. We are not bored at all!

This is absolutely great! There's a lake and a river near here, so we can fish. There are some mountains too, so we can swim, climb and hike. We are having a very good time. We all have a role. Martin cooks, I do the washing up and Meg decides what we eat and looks for food. At the moment, Martin is taking photos and Meg is in the village. She's buying some bread, cheese and pasta. We are all enjoying our holidays!

Tomorrow is Saturday and we are planning to get up early. We are leaving at about 7 am because we are meeting a group of Boy Scouts from New Zealand and together we are climbing a very high mountain.

See you soon!
