

EXPOSITORY PARAGRAPH

Note: There are two activities in this interactive activity sheet. Attempt both the activities cheerfully and carefully. Good Luck!

Activity # 1: Recall the essentials of an Expository Paragraph and choose the correct option:

i. An expository paragraph is written to

- a. Expose a social evil
- b. Explain and inform with reasons
- c. Give arguments for or against an issue
- d. Describe a topic using personal examples

ii. Choose the best "Topic Sentence" out of these on the topic "Importance of Technology"

- a. Technology can be both useful and hazardous for people.
- b. The use of technology has always been a trend in my family.
- c. The value of technology is undeniable as it plays different vital roles in our lives.

iii. The supporting details in an expository paragraph contain

- a. Arguments and counter arguments
- b. Reasons/ explanation and examples
- c. Reasons and personal opinion

iv. Which person pronoun is to be used while composing an expository paragraph?

- a. First person (I, We)
- b. Second Person (You)
- c. Third Person (he, she)

v. To keep the expository paragraph organized, the writer must use _____ words.

(Fill in the blank with the correct word)

Activity # 2: Select the most appropriate demanded part of the expository paragraph on the topic “Teenagers and their Health”

i. Topic Sentence

ii. Supporting Detail # 1

iii. Supporting Detail # 2

iv. Supporting Detail # 3

v. Clincher/ Conclusion
