INTRODUCTION

The bell screamed, indicating it was time for lunch. I was feeling so famished and couldn't wait to grab lunch with my buddies. I'm fortunate to be part of the, 'Power-Trio' in school. My friends were Trisha and Brittany. To sum it up, Trisha's the leader of the pack. She has beauty, brains and brawn. Then, there's Brittany. She was born with a silver spoon in her mouth. Her father buys luxury cars by the second. Then, there's me, Mackenzie. My parents aren't rolling in money nor would I say I'm a rare beauty. I am a simple girl with a heart of gold.

EXPLAIN THE CHARACTER TRAIT WITH AN EXAMPLE

Being part of the 'Power-Trio' has its advantages. Everybody worships the ground we walk upon. Power can be contagious. I always thought I was lucky to be part of the clique, until something happened that changed my perspective forever.

FORESHADOW

CONFLICT

We ordered our favorite food and sat at our usual spot. While I was wolfing down a sandwich, something caught my attention. It was Todd. The classic underdog that everyone in school despises. He was a terrible student and a klutz. The thick rimmed glasses did not help his image either. It was obvious from his torn uniform and unkempt state that Todd was poor. As he clambered around looking for a table while balancing a tray full of food, he suddenly spotted the empty seat beside us.

CLIMAX

"Stop it!" I bellowed, staring daggers at both Trisha and Brittany. "Shame on you for treating him like that. I rather be friends with Todd than with you two!" I chided them. Everyone in the canteen hung their heads in shame. I helped to lift Todd up.
