

Predator: an animal that kills other animals for food.

Prey: an animal that is hunted and killed by another for food

Match the predator with its prey.

An animal that kills other animals for food is called.....

An animal that becomes food for a predator or another animal is called
.....

Food chain: All living things depend on another to get food.

Put these in the correct order.

Grass

Snake

Frog

Grasshopper

