

TO BE ALLOWED TO + bV

Use the signs below to write sentences using (not) to be allowed to + bV

Dogs _____ enter this area (zone).
 This is a private property. You _____ get into this building.
 Patients _____ use their cell phones in the waiting room.
 You _____ smoke in this area.
 You _____ sit here.
 Picnics _____ in the park.
 Pupils _____ run in the corridors.
 Non-disabled drivers _____ park here.
 You _____ eat chewing gum in class.
 Sarah _____ drink wine. She's pregnant.

Visitors _____ take pictures.
 People _____ eat popcorn in this cinema.
 Customers _____ vape /smoke e-cigs on these premises.
 Trucks _____ drive through this tunnel.

Say it differently using to be allowed to+ bV

Tom can stay up late tonight because tomorrow is Sunday.

> _____

Your children can play outside until 5.00 pm.

> _____

Residents can't mow the lawn at weekends.

> _____

I'm sorry Madam, but you can't walk on the grass.

> _____

You are too young, you can't drive a car.

> _____

I can use internet as much as I like at work.

> I _____

Pupils are forbidden to cheat during a test.

> Pupils _____

Beth is forbidden to hang out with friends after school.

> Beth _____

Blowing one's nose in the pool is prohibited.

> People _____

Dogs are forbidden to poop or pee in the park.

> _____

