

2

vocabulary

Cross out the word that does not fit the meaning of the sentence.

1. It is conceivable / ~~misleading~~ / plausible that many lowland areas will be under water if the current trend in climate change continues.
2. Fad diets that promise you'll lose 10 pounds the first day sound convincing / fishy / far-fetched to me. There's no way you can lose 10 pounds in one day!
3. Beware of dubious / phony / well-founded e-mails that ask you to supply personal information like your credit card number or your salary.
4. Greta gave such a believable / convincing / iffy performance in the play that I almost forgot she was acting!
5. Stephanie's blog is misleading / fishy / believable. Her profile says she's 24, but I know for a fact she's only 18.
6. That Carlos is a chef seems far-fetched / dubious / conceivable to me. The food he cooked for dinner was awful.
7. I don't believe life is possible on other planets. Show me a plausible / dubious / well-founded article that proves it, and then maybe I'll believe it.
8. When Kay told me she bought a car on the Internet, it sounded iffy / far-fetched / credible to me. But the car is actually pretty nice!