

A Dream

Paragraph 1

Jane is seventeen years old and she is		she goes for English tuition at Jaya Tuition Centre.
Every Wednesday night,		studying at Alam Secondary School.
Usually, her friend, Jenny		follows her back home after tuition as their houses are just a stone's throw away from each other.

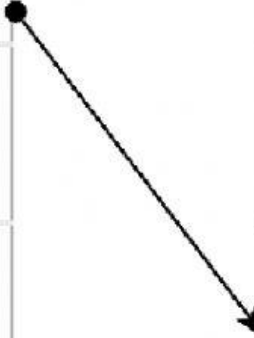

Paragraph 2

Last Wednesday,		had to walk back home alone. She was a little scared.
Jane's class ended at ten o'clock at night and she		the road leading to Jane's house was quiet and deserted.
On that day,		Jenny did not go for tuition because she was sick.
All the shops were closed and		the street was dimly lit.

Paragraph 3

Suddenly, a van		rushed towards her.
Two huge and strong looking men		warned her to keep quiet.
They grabbed Jane and forced		very frightened.
They threatened her with a knife and		stopped in front of Jane.
Jane was		her into the van which then sped off. Jane kicked and struggled.

Paragraph 4

The van soon stopped		out of the van.
The men forced Jane		Jane struggled free and ran. The men chased after her.
As one of them was closing the door of the van,		in front of an abandoned house.
Jane shouted loudly so that		someone would hear her.

Paragraph 5

Suddenly, someone tapped		sitting on the bed next to her.
She opened her eyes and		On Jane's shoulder.
Her mother was		was safe at home and it was just a bad dream.
Jane was glad that she		saw her father waking her up.

Now, rewrite the paragraphs