

9 PERSPECTIVES Can you tell her . . . ?

- ▶ A Listen to the requests people make at the school where Mary Martin teaches. Complete each request with ask or tell.

1. If you see Mary, can you _____ her that she left her phone in my car?
2. If you see Mary, could you _____ her whether or not she is coming to the teachers' meeting?
3. If you see Ms. Martin, can you _____ her if she's graded our tests yet?
4. If you see Mary, please _____ her not to forget the students' reports.
5. If you see Mary, could you _____ her to find me in the cafeteria after her meeting?
6. If you see Ms. Martin, would you _____ her what time I can talk to her about my homework?

INDIRECT REQUESTS.

STATEMENTS (sentences)

Mary, you left your phone in my car.

Can you tell her
Would you tell her
Could you tell her
Please tell her

IMPERATIVES (orders)

Mary, don't forget the students' reports.

Can you tell her
Would you tell her
Could you tell her
Please tell her

Mary, find me in the cafeteria after the meeting.

Can you tell her
Would you tell her
Could you tell her
Please tell her

YES / NO QUESTIONS

Mary, did you come to the meeting?

Can you ask her

Would you ask her

Could you ask her

Please ask her

Ms. Martin, have you graded our tests?

Can you ask her

Would you ask her

Could you ask her

Please ask her

WH- QUESTIONS

Mary, what time can I talk to you about my homework?

Can you ask her

Would you ask her

Could you ask her

Please ask her

Mary, where are you having lunch?

Can you ask her

Would you ask her

Could you ask her

Please ask her