

Select the correct word.

1. Can/mustn't I leave my luggage here?
2. They mustn't/can't be on vacation.
3. I'm afraid you can't/can sit here. These seats are reserved.
4. You must/mustn't walk on the lawn. It's not allowed.
5. Could/Can't I borrow your pencil, please?
6. Susan may/can't be abroad! I just saw her this morning.
7. You could/may not use my computer.
8. May/Mustn't I speak to Mrs. Harper, please?

Complete the sentences using must be or can't be.

1. The Smiths live in a mansion. They _____ rich.
2. Paul doesn't know how to ski. He _____ a ski instructor, then.
3. Richard isn't at work. Well, then he _____ at home.
4. It smells wonderful in here. Yes - Mom _____ baking a cake.
5. Lilian loves roast beef. I see - so she _____ a vegetarian.
6. My sister has four cats, three dogs, and two birds. She _____ an animal lover.
7. Tony hates cooking. He _____ a chef.
8. Janice works in a hospital. That means she _____ a musician.

Complete the sentences below using must be, can't be, must have, or can't have.

1. A: Have you seen Sheila?
B: I think she _____ upstairs watching TV.
2. A: Is that Gary's sister?
B: It _____. Gary doesn't have a sister.
3. A: Could you please lend me some money?
B: What? You _____ spent all your allowance already!
4. A: Why was George limping?
B: He _____ sprained his ankle.
5. A: I think Danny _____ lied to the manager.
B: I disagree. He's a very honest man.

