

Your First Name _____

8 You have received an email from your friend. He has had some problems with English at school. It's almost half-term and his grades are very low. His teacher gave him one more chance to improve them – he will write a revision test from a big part of the material in 10 days.

Your friend asks you to share with him all the useful learning techniques you know. First create a Mind Map and then write an informal letter/email on the lines below. It should contain approximately 75-100 words.

[illegible]