Travel and holidays

A Doris

I love travelling and I love travelling to faraway places. I go on holiday every summer with my family and last year we went all the way to Zimbabwe to see all the animals. We drove into the countryside in a big bus and took photographs of the things we saw through the windows. The lions and elephants were fantastic!

B Julie

Studying other countries is my favourite lesson at school. I like studying continents and countries, and I like hills and lakes and not big houses or churches. I don't really like sightseeing when I go on holiday because I don't like history very much. Last year we went to South America and we saw some beautiful countries, like Venezuela and Brazil.

C Roger

I like walking around a city on my own and seeing all the little places where people live and work and go shopping. I don't want to see the big historical places very much, because they're full of tourists and you don't see the real city with the real people in those places – even if you have a tour guide. I like the cities in Mexico and Hungary.

D James

What I like to do on holiday is ... nothing! I like sitting in the sun looking at the view. It doesn't matter if I'm at the seaside or in a city or in the mountains. I like to sit and think and read a book, but nothing too difficult because I don't want to get tired! I like Egypt and Spain because they're very hot countries.

E Audrey

My holidays are full of action – swimming, walking, climbing. I love them all! I don't get tired, and I think it's really exciting to do something you can't do in your life at home. Sometimes we go into the mountains and walk for days and we don't see anyone else the whole time! I like Oman and Kenya, and one year we went to Norway and lived in the snow for a week. It was cold but it was the best holiday I ever had!
