

PRONOUNS AND ADJECTIVES CHART

PERSONAL PRONOUNS	POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES	OBJECT PRONOUNS	POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS
I	MY	ME	MINE
YOU	YOUR	YOU	YOURS
HE	HIS	HIM	HIS
SHE	HER	HER	HERS
IT	ITS	IT	—
WE	OUR	US	OURS
YOU	YOUR	YOU	YOURS
THEY	THEIR	THEM	THEIRS
FOLLOWED BY: → A VERB	FOLLOWED BY: → A NOUN → AN ADJECTIVE + NOUN	THE PERSON RECEIVING THE ACTION. NORMALLY GOES AT THE END OF THE SENTENCE. USED AFTER: → A VERB → A PREPOSITION	NEVER FOLLOWED BY A NOUN. NORMALLY GOES AT THE END OF THE SENTENCE.
I WORK EVERY DAY SHE LIVES IN PARIS	THIS IS MY HOUSE THAT IS HER DOG	ARE YOU TALKING TO ME? THEY SAW HER	THIS HOUSE IS MINE THAT DOG IS HERS

PRONOUNS AND ADJECTIVES PRACTICE

1. Choose the correct option (PERSONAL PRONOUNS / POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES / OBJECT PRONOUNS / POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS).

1. [] am from Italy.
2. Our homework is very difficult. Can you help []
3. Is this [] dictionary?
4. My son lives near you. Do you know []
5. My brother is a doctor. [] is 27.
6. This is my mother. [] is a teacher.
7. I remembered to take my passport but James forgot to take []
8. You are very nice. I like []
9. My daughter visited [] last month.
10. Don't touch these books! They are not []
11. I'm Anna and this is [] husband.
12. Is this your daughter? What's [] name?
13. We phone Mum and Dad yesterday but we didn't see []
14. Your coat might be warm but I think that [] is more beautiful.
15. That ticket for the theatre is for []

2. Choose the correct option (PERSONAL PRONOUNS / POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES / OBJECT PRONOUNS / POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS).

1. His father works hard. [] is a doctor.
2. Because the woman seemed friendly, we asked [] for directions.
3. Richard visits [] cousins once a month.
4. Greg and Tim don't know that the prize is []
5. The cupboards are so full, we cannot put anything else into []
6. Mary wants us to send the photographs to []
7. We have invited them to visit []
8. If you don't find your pen, Mike can lend you []
9. The store was open, but we did not have time to go into []
10. She will be angry if we make fun of []
11. You and I are good friends. [] hardly ever argue.
12. They saw [] friend on television.
13. I don't like this door. [] colour is too dark.
14. I thought it was Jack's box but in fact it was []
15. The basket is heavy. [] is full of oranges.