

1. Choose the correct particle so that the sentences make perfect sense.

- a) The students who had spoken _____ against the government were arrested.
- b) When we were kids, we used to spend hours hanging _____ the park.
- c) Jill waited for the children's excitement to die _____ before getting them ready for bed.
- d) My best friend moved _____ when I was ten, and I never saw him again.
- e) Trying to show he didn't care, he sauntered _____ with his hands and his pockets.
- f) They've gone to the airport to see their son _____.
- g) John and I sat up until the early hours chatting _____ happily.
- h) Come here and eat all your vegetables _____; they're good for you.
- i) My father wasn't _____ much when I was young.

2. Match the previous sentences to their meanings.

- It becomes less strong, active or violent. ☐
- To talk in a friendly informal way for a long time, especially about things that are not important. ☐
- To go to live in a different area. ☐
- To eat all of something. ☐
- To wait or spend time somewhere doing nothing. ☐
- To be present in a situation or place for a while. ☐
- To publicly speak in protest about something. ☐
- To say goodbye to someone. ☐
- To walk away in a slow relaxed way, especially so that you look confident or proud. ☐