

Listen to the conversation and respond some questions.

1) What happened to Carol?

- a. Someone stole her wallet.
- b. Someone stole her car.
- c. Someone stole her bike.

2) How can you describe her situation?

- a. A lucky break.
- b. A mishap,--- an unlucky event.
- c. A coincidence.

3) What was she doing when her bike was stolen?

- a. Having dinner at home.
- b. Having lunch with a friend.
- c. Watching TV with a friend.

Choose the correct tense.

1. I was having lunch with a friend, and I had parked it on the Street.

2. When I came back, someone had stolen it.

Listen again to it and order the events in each situation. What happened first?

1.

I was having lunch, and I had parked it on the street.

I parked my bike ____

I was having lunch ____

2.

When I came back, someone had stolen it.

Someone stole my bike ____

I came back ____

Look at these other situations; what happened first?

a) I had made plans for the weekend when my friends called to go out.

My friends called ____

I made plans ____

b) One day, I was walking alone in the forest; I was very scared because I had never done that in my life before.

I walked alone ____

I never did it in my life ____

c) After I had called my parents, my cell phone battery died.

My cellphone battery died ____

I called my parents ____

NOTE:

Use the past perfect when an event occurred before another event in the past.