

A special person

1) Speaking- You are talking about an important person in your life- Think about:

1) Who is this person?

2) What is their relationship to you?

3) How did you meet?

4) How often do you see them?

5) What kind of things do you do together?

6) Why is this person important to you?

2) Listen to someone describing a friend and answer the questions:

1- How do they know each other?

2- Why are they good friends?

3) Listen again and tick the phrases you hear. Put yes or no

I've known (name) for

We met

He/she is one of my best friends because.....

One thing I like about (name) is....

The only problem with (name) is

We get on well because...

We both enjoy.....

We keep in touch by.....

We will always.....

5) Writing: A competition entry. Read the competition entry below. Write in your notebook three reasons why Julie is the writer's best friend.

Julie is the best friend in the world because she is always there for me. Julie is the person I call when I have a problem, or if I need to borrow money. She has helped me through some difficult times. We have known each other for nearly twenty years, so we know everything there is to know about each other. We argue sometimes but we have the same sense of humor, so our arguments don't last very long. I can talk to Julie about anything and I know she will be a friend forever.

6- Write an entry for the competition about your best friend or someone special. Use the questions in activity 1 to help you.
