

Family Celebrations

COLUMN A

Costa Rican families are very united, that's why most of them enjoy doing gatherings to celebrate special dates. ()

In September, the parades represent an activity in which most families enjoy going. ()

Some Costa Rican families prepare a special sweet dish made up with sugarcane and ripe pumpkin. ()

Families go to open places to eat out special food like sandwiches. ()

Rivers are a popular entertaining activity among many families. Many go to these places especially on Sundays. ()

Costa Rican families like to go to their relatives' houses. ()

Relatives and friends meet together to celebrate and eat cake. ()

One of the dishes Costa Rican families mostly enjoy is one made up with rice and chicken. ()

On December, Costa Rican families cook a popular dish prepared with pork, corn, vegetables, and plantain leaves. ()

COLUMN B

