Joining Sentences

Join each pair of sentences, and write the new sentences. Remember to use the connecting words "and, but, or" and do not forget to use the comma before them.

1. Many kind of spiders spin webs. Not all of the webs are alike.

_____

2. A web may be long and narrow. It may be shaped like a triangle.

_____

3. Some webs are like funnels. Others look more like domes.

_____

4. Wolf spiders hide in burrows. Lynx spiders live on trees or bushes.

_____

5. Many lynx spiders are green. They are hard to find on green leaves.

_____

6. Tarantulas are furry. They look fierce.

_____

Exercises taken from Language Arts, Harcourt Family Learnings.

