

School rules

1. Read the paragraph about school rules. Then match the definition to the words below.

School Rules

In the past schools generally had more rules, and if you broke the rules, you were punished. At my school, for example, pupils sometimes had to stay behind and write an essay. A friend of mine always got into trouble for wearing makeup.

I remember we had to call the male teachers 'sir' and female teachers 'miss', and we had to wear rather unfashionable uniform but most students were proud to belong to their school. Nowadays, the atmosphere is more relaxed: older pupils can often dress the way they want – as long as they're reasonably smart – and the teachers are not as strict.

2. Drag the word to its matching definition

School rules	special clothes for school
Break the rules	the feeling in a place or situation
Stay behind	comfortable and informal
Get into trouble	well dressed and not too casual
Uniform	wear clothes
Atmosphere	do something wrong
Relaxed	stay in a place when others leave
Dress	a teacher who always punishes pupils who do something wrong.
Smart	do something wrong and be punished
Strict	instructions telling you what you must or must not do

3. Match the words on the left with the words on the right.
