

Phrasal verbs

Transitive & Intransitive phrasal verbs

SEPARABLE

- (transitive)
- 1) show off (display proudly)
 - 2) carry on (continue)
 - 3) wear out (destroy by overuse)
 - 4) turn up (arrive, increase volume)
 - 5) look up (seek info)
 - 6) put on (organize)
 - 7) burn down (destroy by fire)
 - 8) try on (wear to see if it fits)
 - 9) clean up (tidy up)
 - 10) pull through (recover)
 - 11) set up (start)

INSEPARABLE

- (transitive)
- 1) get down (to) (start)
 - 2) look forward to (anticipate)
 - 3) get over (recover)
 - 4) come up (with) (think)
 - 5) take care (of) (protect)
 - 6) join in (participate)
 - 7) go on (continue)
 - 8) take up (start doing)
 - 9) go for (choose)
 - 10) find out (discover)
 - 11) get along with (have a friendly relationship)
- (intransitive)
- 1) go off (explode)
 - 2) set off (depart - start a trip)
 - 3) end up (finish)
 - 4) dress up (put on costumes)
 - 5) carry on (continue)
 - 6) break up (end a relationship)
 - 7) give in (consent, surrender)
 - 8) break down (stop working)

1) Match the verbs with their correct meaning

explode

display proudly

recover

depart

anticipate - expect continue

destroy by overuse

finish

start

The bomb went off at midday.

We set off for the beach.

They're travelling across Europe and are planning to end up in Moscow.

He bought that sports car to show off to his friends.

Dianne is carrying on the family tradition by becoming a lawyer.

Tomas wore the same pajamas until he worn them out.

I've got a lot of work to do, so I'd better get down to it.

I'm really looking forward to my holiday.

They had a big problem, but after talking, they got over it.

