Machu Picchu

Did you know that Machu Picchu (0)..... not a city but the residence of the Inca emperor Pachacuti? This fact doesn't change how surprised tourists (19)..... about this ancient and majestic place. The Incas (20)..... it hundreds of years ago and then left it abandoned (21)..... the time of the American conquest. As a result, (22)..... of the Spanish who first came to Peru knew about the existence of this place, even when it was popular locally. (23)..... 1911, a historian, Hiram Bingham, explored the city after many others had forgotten about it (24)..... published articles and photographic evidence for the world to know. As a result, Machu Picchu became one of the main tourist attractions in the world and every year thousands of visitors walk along some of the (25)..... streets they have ever seen in (26)..... lives.

Teams of archaeologists helped in the reconstruction of the three main structures and the surrounding buildings to give tourists a close idea of (27)..... they looked like at the time. After all, it has stood since the XV Century and it continues to be one of the Seven Modern Wonders of the world. Machu Picchu is a symbol of an advanced civilization which knew about complex architecture and engineering. Nowadays, proud (28)..... say that they know what it means for the history of humankind.
