

I have got a headache.

99

★ We use have got or has got to talk about illnesses or health problems.

- What's the matter?

- I have got a headache.

- She has got a cold.

● For some health problems, we use other verbs:

* feel: I feel sick.

She feels dizzy.

* break: I broke my arm.

* cut: I cut my finger.

* bump: I bumped my head.

Listen to the problem and choose the correct picture

1
2
3
4
5
6

Now write sentences using the different subjects (I, He, She) and an illness from the word bank.

a toothache an earache a headache a stomach ache a cold
a cough a sore throat (feel) dizzy (feel) sick

He has got a headache.

He feels dizzy.

She

She

I

He

I

She

I