

Infinitive

Remember!

To is not used with the Infinitive in the following cases:

- after the modal verbs must, can (could), may (might), need;
- after the verbs make, let;
- in the Objective Infinitive Complex after the verbs see, watch, hear, feel;
- after the expressions "had better", "would rather", "would sooner".

Fill in "to" where it is necessary:

1. I can _____ (help) you with this exercise.
2. He likes _____ (play) volley-ball after school.
3. Helen made me _____ (laugh) a lot with her funny stories.
4. You'd better _____ (see) this film yourself. It's very interesting.
5. I want _____ (take part) in this competition.
6. We expect Nick _____ (arrive) on Monday morning.
7. _____ (work) in the garden was a pleasure.
8. It may _____ (snow) in the morning.
9. I'm happy _____ (hear) that you have passed your exam.
10. You had better _____ (go) there right now.
11. Ann said she would rather _____ (visit) Paris than Liverpool.
12. I know that you can _____ (speak) three languages.
13. I let my sister _____ (invite) all her friends.
14. I intend _____ (talk) to her about it.
15. Ask your friend _____ (help) you with this problem.
16. He began _____ (go) in for football last year.
17. I went to the conference _____ (listen) to my friend's report.
18. Your duty is _____ (feed) the parrot regularly.
19. She asked me _____ (call) Andrew immediately.
20. Mike wants _____ (install) the new equipment.
21. We like _____ (have) tea with sandwiches.
22. Our plan is _____ (visit) Rome and Paris.
23. I'm really upset _____ (hear) this news.
24. Tom asked me _____ (choose) the book for his sister.
25. Pam wanted me _____ (come) there early in the morning.
26. I would rather _____ (stay) at home in such a bad weather.
27. I watched my little son _____ (play) in the yard.
28. _____ (swim) is such a pleasure.