

Likely vs Probably

The way he is driving he is likely to have an accident.

The way he is driving he is probably going to have an accident.

Fill in the gaps with 'likely', 'unlikely' or 'probably'

1. It's _____ going to rain, so you had better bring your umbrella.
2. It's _____ to rain, so you had better bring your umbrella.
3. Chelsea are the better team, so they will _____ win.
4. Chelsea are the better team, so they are _____ to win.
5. Chelsea are the better team, so it is _____ that they will lose.
6. If it rains, we _____ won't go on the picnic.
7. If it rains, we are _____ to go on the picnic.
8. If it rains, we are not _____ to go on the picnic.
9. This video is _____ to last an hour.
10. This video will _____ last an hour.
11. My mother will _____ be working in the garden.
12. My mother is _____ to be working in the garden.
13. I will _____ be very busy tomorrow.
14. I am _____ to be very busy tomorrow.
15. James will _____ be late. He always is.
16. James is _____ to be late. He always is.
17. The police say that the burglars are _____ local people.
18. The police say that the burglars are _____ to be local people.
19. The missing plane _____ crashed into the sea.
20. The missing plane is _____ to have crashed into the sea.
21. There is _____ to be snow tonight.
22. There will _____ be snow tonight.
23. We _____ won't be going to London next year.
24. We are not _____ to be going to London next year.
25. We are _____ to be going to London next year.

