*28) Read the conversation and answer

AGENT: The World of Resident Sea. Good afternoon. Can I help you?

JON: Yes. I'm interested in an apartment on the World of Resident Sea. Can I ask you some questions?

AGENT: Yes, of course.

JON: Well, first of all. Are there any apartments for sale now?

AGENT: Yes, there are, but we only have about three for sale right now. They're very popular.

JON: Yes, I'm sure. OK. How many bedrooms are there in the apartments?

AGENT: Well, we have apartments with two bedrooms and apartments with three bedrooms. At the moment, we only have the two- apartments for sale.

JON: That's OK. I want two bedrooms, but how many bathrooms are there?

AGENT: There are two bathrooms, one for each bedroom, and there's another toilet.

JON: Great, but how big are the apartments? I mean, how much space is there?

AGENT: Oh, they're quite big. Some are 100 square metres and some 120 square metres. The apartments for sale now are 100 sq metres.

JON: That's good. OK, the big question... how much does the apartment cost?

AGENT: The two-bedroom apartments for sale now cost around two million dollars.

JON: Two million dollars? Oh, I don't know about that. It's very expensive. Let me think about it for a day or two.

AGENT: Yes, that's fine. Thank you for your call, and please call again. Goodbye.
