CLOTHES PSYCHOLOGY

Clothes can say a lot about who you really are. This is a short list about some typical clothing personalities and what they say about the wearer:

★ The Sloppy Dresser:
Sloppy clothing (wrinkled, stained or mismatched) sends the message that you do not care about your appearance, your life, your future, etc.

★ The Designer Dresser:
Every item on you is a brand name (Gucci, Prada, etc.) People may think you are successful but they may also think you are materialistic and insecure.

★ The Flashy Dresser:
You always have something colourful on: a tie, a handbag, a pair of shoes... You need to show others your personality and get noticed.

★ The Drab Dresser:
You always dress in neutral colours and simple skirts (or trousers) and shirts. You really do not want a lot of extra attention from the others.

★ The Athletic Dresser:
You wear sports clothes 24 / 7: trainers, shorts, a tracksuit... You want to show others that you care about your body, but it could also mean that you are sloppy.

★ The Casual Dresser:
You never put on anything but jeans and a T-shirt. This look can make people think that you do not care much about fashion.
