

6th READING. "The Ant and The grasshopper" from the language book (p.118 – 119)

1 Which moral do both fables teach?

Work hard now to prepare for the future.

Don't worry about the future.

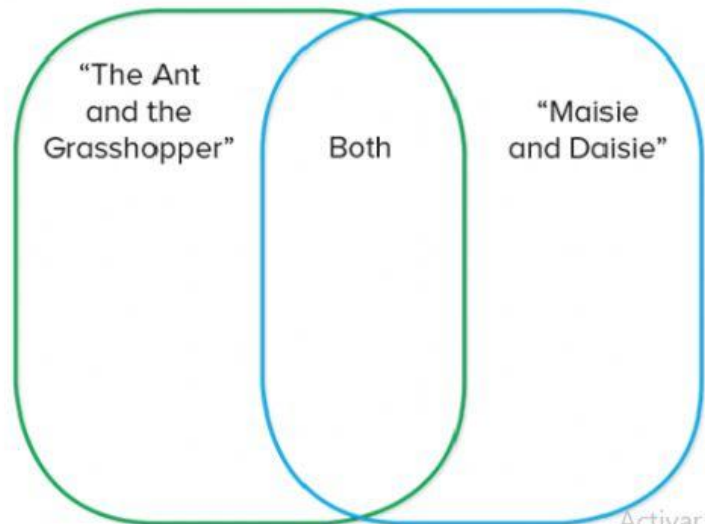

Don't help others, because then they will learn from their mistakes.

Help someone who has made a foolish decision.

2 Compare and contrast the fables. Sort the sentences into the Venn diagram.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

- 1 One character works hard.
- 2 One character plays instead of working.
- 3 The characters are animals.
- 4 The characters are people.
- 5 The story is set in a city park.
- 6 The story is set in the countryside.
- 7 One character helps another.
- 8 One character refuses to help another.
- 9 One character is selfish.
- 10 One character is generous.

Activar Wir

3 Find the words in the text. Complete the sentences.

upset

grass

skipped

nest

- 1 The ants built their underground.
- 2 My little sister was so happy that she down the street instead of walking.
- 3 They knew she was because she looked sad and didn't want to talk to anyone.
- 4 We like to run across the in our yard in our bare feet.

4 Discuss the questions.

1 Was Antony right not to help Gary? Was Daisy right to help Maisie?
Why or why not?

2 If you were in each situation, would you help?

3 Which characters are you more like: Gary and Maisie, or Antony and Daisy?