

An Evening with the Cohens

Fill in the missing words. Use the word bank below.

hospital, guard, mother, Once a year, waiters, study, onions, restaurant, vegetable, apartment

_____ in a cool autumn evening, the Cohen family goes to the theater and then eats at the Happy Kitchen _____. Before they leave their _____ they always turn off the electricity and walk together. On their way they pass the famous city museum and wave to the kind _____ who stands at the door.

When they get to the restaurant all the _____ remember them and are happy to see them. It is a beautiful, clean place. They usually begin with a big _____ salad with peppers, tomatoes, lettuce and _____ in it.

Sara Cohen, the family's _____ is a shopkeeper and David, the father, is a nurse at a _____. They work very hard and are very tired during the week. Koren and Livne, their children, _____ hard at school and this lovely evening is very important for them and it makes them all happy.

The last time they were at the restaurant they got a bill of two thousand and thirty shekels, they were surprised, but it was only a mistake so all's well that ends well.

Follow the Instructions:

1. Change the word in bold to a word with the same meaning from the text.

- a. The Cohen family goes to the theater in the fall. _____
- b. Before they get out of their home they turn off the electricity. _____
- c. The guard at the museum is nice. _____
- d. The restaurant isn't dirty. _____
- e. Koren and Livne learn many things at school. _____

2. Answer the following questions:

- a. How do the parents feel when they work? _____
- b. What vegetable makes you cry? _____
- c. Do the Cohens live in a house? _____

3. Write in numbers: two thousand and thirty

4. What adjectives describe the....

- a. evening _____
- b. museum _____
- c. guard _____
- d. restaurant _____
- e. salad _____

5. Is there a good end to the story? Circle Yes / No

Copy and translate the sentence that helped you answer the question.

