2. Read this interview with Madonna. Are these statements true (T), false (F) or not mentioned (NM)? (Lee esta entrevista con Madonna. ¿Son las oraciones verdaderas, falsas, o no mencionadas?)

A big success among teenagers in the 1980s and 90s, pop singer and film actress Madonna is also a writer of children's books. Mother of Lourdes Maria (born in 1996), Rocco (born in 2000), David Banda and Mercy James (adopted in 2006 and 2009), Madonna talks here about her experiences of being a mother and gives some advice to younger generations.

Interviewer Can you tell us about your experience of being a mum? Madonna I enjoy being a mother, but it isn't easy: I try to be a good mum and a successful businesswoman at the same time. I think that now I'm more relaxed, more generous, and less obsessive. Should I go shopping or play with my daughter? I know the answer! Interviewer What advice would you give your children? Madonna They should know what they want and challenge me about everything. They shouldn't be passive. They should question things – I think this is very important.	Interviewer You're a kids' book writer now. Tell us about it, please. Madonna My books always have a moral lesson. They teach something about how we should treat other people. When you're a parent, you should be more responsible and careful about your actions. Interviewer And finally, what's your advice to young girls who want to be singers? Madonna They should dress like Britney Spears and think like me. Interviewer Ha, ha. I see. Thank you very much, Madonna. Madonna You're welcome.

Useful Tip > Vocabulary
 Advice is an uncountable noun. We use a piece of to make it countable.
*I have a problem and I really need some advice.
 Let me give you a good piece of advice.*

Should & shouldn't (advice & suggestion)
Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
Children should question things. You should be more careful.	They shouldn't be passive. We shouldn't hurt people.	Should I talk to my parents? Should I accept everything they said? What should we do?
Remember! We use should or shouldn't (should not) to say something is a good or bad idea (suggestion) and also to give advice. We use should / shouldn't with all subject pronouns: I, you, he, she, it, we, you and they.
