1) Read and choose: (leer el texto y elegir la opción correcta)

I was born in Corrientes City, Argentina. I am a musician; I moved to Los Angeles, in the USA last year. My hometown is a small town, I love it, but I decided it would be a good idea to move because there are (1) more good / better job opportunities in L.A., particularly in my area, music, play musical instrument and sing in shows.

At first I didn't like Los Angeles because it's very different from Corrientes. Corrientes has a population of only 346 334 people. There are about 4 million people in Los Angeles and so it wasn't easy to adapt to a very different lifestyle. The traffic is (2) heavier / heavier and the streets are much (3) noisier / noisier. Also, life in a big city is more dangerous than in small towns. I was worried about crime and violence at first. I missed the fresh air and quiet streets of Corrientes. However, I soon discovered that living in a big city has lot of advantages. There are more things for young people to do, but people in Corrientes are (4) more friendly / friendlier than in L.A. However, in L.A. there are lots of movie theatres, night clubs, malls and sport centers.

It is difficult to say if life in a big city is (5) worse / bader or (6) more exciting / exciting more than life in a small town. I'm working in a TV show. Yesterday, in my program was Taylor Swift and Selena Gomez. I think Taylor is (7) taller / more tall than Selena, but Selena is (8) intelligenter / more intelligent. Today, Chris Hemsworth (Thor) and Mark Ruffalo (Hulk) are invited in the program. In the movie, Hulk is (9) more strong/ stronger than Thor. But, in real life Mark is (10) weaker / more weak than Chris.

2) Read Diego Gutierrez's post on his blog. Then write T (true) or F (false) (Lee el posteo de Diego Gutierrez en su blog. Luego escribe verdadero o falso)

1. Diego was born in Corrientes.
2. He moved to L. A. because he wanted to study there.
3. Diego didn't like Los Angeles at first.
4. Diego thinks people in L.A. are friendlier than in Corrientes.
