

Grammar-Describing Words- Superlative Adjectives

A. Look at the Grammar Box. Follow the rules to write the superlatives in the table.

The heaviest boat is the red one. Is that the fastest boat? The blue boat is the smallest.		To make a superlative, add -est: fast- fastest If it ends in -e, just add -st: safe- safest If it ends in -y, we change the y to i -iest: heavy- heaviest consonant vowel consonant: big- biggest hot hottest
Is the blue whale the biggest in the world? Yes it is

B. Write! Complete the sentences with superlatives:

Boy: This is the _____ (long) canal in the world.

Girl: Where is it?

Boy: It's in China. It's the _____ (old) canal, too

Girl: Is it the _____ (big) canal in the world?

Boy: No, it isn't. The Suez Canal is bigger than it.

C. Look and write sentences with the superlative of the adjective in parentheses:

1. _____ C is the biggest _____ (big)
2. _____ (old)
3. _____ (fast)
4. _____ (small)

D. Write the missing words

slow	slower	the slowest		fast	faster
short		the shortest		tall		the tallest
heavy	heavier			old	older
	bigger	the biggest		small		the smallest

E. Read and click on the correct words

1. The Atlantic Ocean is bigger / biggest than the Indian Ocean, but the Pacific Ocean is the biggest / bigger.
2. The Suez Canal is longer / longest than the Panama Canal, but the Grand Canal in China is the longest / longer.
3. Trains are faster / fastest than boats but airplanes are the fastest / faster.
4. Cars are heavier / heaviest than bikes but trucks are the heaviest / heavier.

