

Adverbs

Match the type of adverb to the question it answers.

| | | |
|---------------------|---|----------------------------|
| Adverb of time | • | • Where did it happen? |
| Adverb of manner | • | • How did it happen? |
| Adverb of place | • | • How often did it happen? |
| Adverb of frequency | • | • When did it happen? |

Identify the type of adverb in each sentence.

The tiny ants walked towards their home with the crumbs.

Hillary and Jake found the answers to the riddles yesterday.

Sarah often goes to the mall with her friends.

A strange man unlocked the door quietly and crept in.

John and Kai are going to travel to Asia soon.

Our cousins hike and camp sometimes.

Luca always went fishing near Palm Springs.

Pablo read the prescribed material carefully today.

Maya's dog usually greets her along the path.

The truck drove past our gate noisily.

Write a sentence with each given set of words and include the type of adverb in brackets.

You may change the tense of the verb for your sentence.

Garath/eat (adverb of manner)

Phumi/play (adverb of time)

the lions/hunt (adverb of frequency)

Raine and Wendy/look (adverb of place)

rabbits and hares/jump (adverb of time)

our class/go (adverb of place)

Yolanda and I/do (adverb of frequency)

the pack of wolves/howl (adverb of manner)

Reflection

Complete each sentence:

I can describe adverbs now.

I can identify adverbs now.

I need to practise more.

My level of effort today was .