

Read the question, listen and tick what these children did in the past. You have to tick two options in each case.

|                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What did Tommy do yesterday afternoon ?       |    |    |     |    |
| What did Luke do yesterday morning ?          |    |    |     |    |
| What did Sophie and Martha do last Monday ? |  |  |  |  |
| What did Lou do two days ago ?              |  |  |  |  |

Now, listen to what these children are going to do in the future and tick the correct option. (Tick only one)

|                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What is Tommy going to do tomorrow ?                 |    |    |    |    |
| What is Luke going to do next Saturday ?             |    |    |    |    |
| What are Sophie and Martha going to do next week ? |  |  |  |  |
| What is Lou going to do tomorrow afternoon ?       |  |  |  |  |

Look at the previous activities and write sentences as in the example. Pay attention to the time markers.

1. _____ Yesterday afternoon, Tommy listen<sup>ed</sup> to music and read books but tomorrow he <sup>is going to go</sup> to the park. _____

2. _____
_____

3. _____
_____

4. _____
_____