Relative Scenarios

DIRECTIONS: Read each scenario. Is it about a want or a need? Write your answer on the line. Explain.

John asked his parents for a new bike for his birthday. He told them that all of his friends have new bikes, and compared to theirs, the bike he already has is old and ugly.

Karen had a bad cough. Her mother took her to the doctor, and he prescribed some medicine. Karen's mother went to the store and bought the medicine for Karen.

Kenneth's stomach was growling. He asked his mother to buy him a candy bar. She refused. He complained that he was starving, but still his mother refused to buy Kenneth the candy bar.

© www.EnglishWorksheetsLand.com

WANTS versus NEEDS

I want many things, but I don't need them. Here are some things that I want:

I need some things in order to survive. Here are some things that I need: