The main pillars of Colombia economy are the agricultural sector, mineral resources, related trade, and the export industry.

AGRICULTURAL SECTORS: The commercial crops that are grown in Colombia are coffee, sugarcane, oil palm, cotton, banana and some other. However, coffee is the main commercial crop in Colombia and is an important part of Colombia economy.

MINERAL RESOURCES: The minerals that are usually found in Colombia are gold, platinum, coal, copper, manganese, lead and mercury. Another important mineral deposit of Colombia is the petroleum resource of this country.

1. Taking into account the previous information we can affirm that the Colombian economy is based on the

A. COMMERCIAL PRODUCTS.
B. DIFFERENT TYPES OF CROPS.
C. COFFEE AND PETROLEUM.
D. AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL RESOURCES.

2. Pedro and Pablo are miners and extract gold and coal of some important mines in Colombia, for this reason, the pillar of the economy in that they work is

A. AGRICULTURE SECTOR.
B. EXPORT INDUSTRY.
C. MINERAL RESOURCES.
D. COMMERCIAL CROPS.

3. Maria works into the agricultural sector, she produces different types of crops, some examples of those are

A. MERCURY AND PLATINUM.
B. PETROLEUM AND GOLD.
C. COFFEE AND SUGARCANE.
D. MINERALS AND AGRICULTURE.

4. Richard is a business person and works in a toys factory in China, using the previous image he affirms that Colombia should import toys because this country

A. WORKS WITH THE SECTORS OF THE ECONOMY.
B. PRODUCES A LOT RAW MATERIAL.
C. CAN PRODUCE ENOUGH.
D. CANNOT PRODUCE ENOUGH.

5. The main pillars of Colombia economy are the agricultural sector, mineral resources and export industry. There are a huge variety of crops that are grown in Colombia, for this reason Colombia could export

A. TOYS AND CARS.
B. VEGETABLES AND FRUITS.
C. COMPUTERS AND CELL PHONES.
D. CLOTHES AND SHOES.