Music or architecture?

'Talking about music is like dancing about architecture.'

It is thought the (0) composer Clara Schumann said this in 1846, although there's no conclusive (17) _____ of that. But what did she mean? Let's think about it. Firstly, music sends its own message to its listeners, and so it may be (18) _____ to talk about what it means. But it is not (19) _____ to imagine a dance troupe doing an interesting and meaningful (20) _____ with architecture as its topic. If so, Clara's (21) _____ quote would be wrong and talking about music may be more (22) _____ than she thought. People can hold their own (23) _____ opinions about all forms of art, and the artist's own intention is not (24) _____ any more valid than anyone else's interpretation of their work. So, let's keep talking about art, music and films. Wouldn't life be dull if no one wanted to share their opinion!
