

IDIOMS

Circle the correct colour in these sentences.

- a) He was caught yellow- / red-handed with the money in his bag when he was leaving the bank he robbed.
- b) Stephen phoned out of the blue / black, haven't spoken to him in over three months! I didn't expect that.
- c) They come to visit once in a blue / yellow moon. In my opinion, they should visit their parents more often.
- d) I was really green / orange with envy when I realized they bought a new car.
- e) When she has the blues / greens, it's difficult to cheer her up.
- f) His excuses made me see red / white! I started shouting and arguing with him.