What now?

Stephanie Pitt, 16

What are you doing in the summer?

I'm doing a part-time job in July. I'm working in a fast food restaurant. It isn't very well-paid but it's better than nothing. In August, my best friend and I are travelling around Europe. So I need the money.

What are your plans for after the summer?

I'm going to continue with full-time education.

What are you going to study?

I don't know, I'm not going to decide until the end of next year.

Are you going to stay in touch with your friends?

Yes, I am. Most of my friends aren't leaving school next year so I can stay in contact with them.

Joe King, 16

What are you doing in the summer?

I'm having two weeks holiday when school finishes. But then I'm working for the rest of the summer. My dad's got a garage and I'm going to work there full-time. It's a pity to have an indoor job in the summer but I enjoy it and it's quite well-paid.

What are you going to study?

I'm not going to stay at school. I want to do professional training.

What are your plans for after the summer?

I'm going to train to become a skilled mechanic. I like cars, so that's the perfect job for me.

Are you going to stay in touch with your friends?

I don't know. It's going to be difficult but I'm going to try.
