

THE WORLD HAS TALENT is a very popular television programme. People on the show are from all over the world: countries in Africa, Asia, Europe and North and South America. Some people are professional singers and musicians but other people aren't. They are factory workers, teachers, office workers – lots of different jobs. Some people are very good; others are very bad! Some people are very young, but others are very old. Pati is a singer and a salsa dancer from Switzerland. She isn't young – she's 80, and she's a great dancer!

Four judges are on the show: May Rattanakosin is from Thailand – she's a singer; Vicente Silva is from Chile – he's an actor; Alison McDonald is from Canada – she's a songwriter; and Bruno Gelato is from Italy – he's a scientist.
