

Directions: Write the dependent clause

1. Teachers' Day is a special event at school because the administrators have high regard for educators.
2. On this day, a committee prepares a program so that all teachers and students may enjoy their time.
3. Some students are assigned to clean and decorate the gymnasium where most of the activities are held.
4. Since it is a day to entertain teachers, students showcase their talents through different presentations.
5. Teachers from different levels also have their own time to shine when they show their skills.
6. The committee also selects the best teachers even though all deserve to receive recognition.
7. Awardees are given a chance to give encouraging words while their fellow mentors listen to their speeches.
8. They usually talk about great experiences which they will treasure all their life.
9. Students are all ears during this time because they expect to learn many lessons from their second parents.
10. Truly, Teachers' Day is a perfect moment for teachers and students as they are bound by love for learning.