1) Complete the following limericks by matching the stem (the first two lines) from column 1 with a suitable response (the last three lines) from column 2.

Rewrite each limerick in your notebook.

Column 1	Column 2
A- There was a young man named Murray Who got a good job in a brewery.	It swallowed the crew In a minute or two, And then picked its teeth with the anchor
B- There was a young lady of Ryde Who ate a green apple and died.	Said the waiter: 'Don't shout And wave it about, Or the rest will be wanting one too!'
C- A sea-serpent saw a big tanker, Bit a hole in her side and then sank her.	He can take his beak Enough food for a week, I'm blowed if I know how the helican.
D- There was a young lady of Lynn Who was so excessively thin.	He got scared by a rat And fell into a vat So he got very drunk in a hurry.

E- There was an old person of Crewe
Who found a dead mouse in his stew.
Then when she essayed
To drink lemonade
She slipped through the straw and fell in!

F- A wonderful bird is the pelican
His beak can hold more than his belican.
The apple fermented
Inside the lamented
And made cider inside 'er inside.