MY TERRIBLE YEAR!

★Choose the correct option.

I had a terrible year when I was fifteen. I started hanging round with these girls at School. How I wish now that I ..... them! I thought they were cool so I just joined in with them.

There were really badly behaved and didn't study much. Sometimes they didn't even go to school. One time I was with them and we went into a shop, and one of them stole a CD. When we came out the shop manager stopped us and we were all taken to the police. She knew she ..... the CD but she said we told her to so we all got the blame. If only I ..... Into the shop with them.

The police called our parents. We had to pay the shop and stay in every night for three months. I really regret upsetting my parents. Now these girls are mean to me – I wish they ..... me all the time but there is nothing I can do about it. If only ..... the past but I can't.

I wish I ..... more friends now but I am happier and I know it's time I forgot about what happened. I want to do well at school and enjoy myself so my parents are proud of me.
