

Look at the picture of the men and the dog. Who is the owner of the dog?

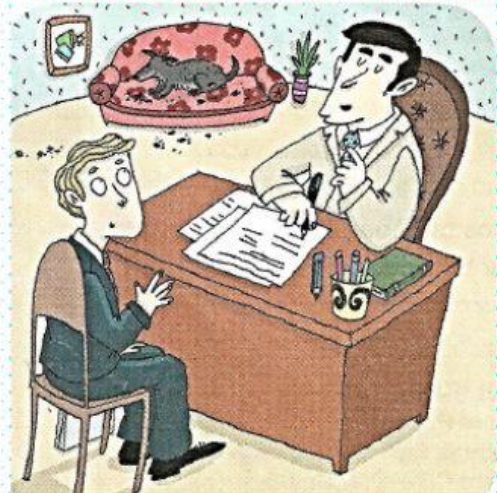

1 Read the next text. Were you right in the answer?

Urban myths—true or false?

Bad dog!

A young man arrived for a job interview at the house of a rich businessman. On his way to the house, he noticed a big black dog in the man's yard. Did he like dogs? No, he didn't. He hated them. He hurried to the house. The dog followed him into the businessman's living room. It didn't behave well. It walked all over the house. It jumped on the sofa with its dirty paws. It chased the cat. The businessman didn't stop the dog, and he didn't talk to it at all. The young man was very surprised. The interview finished and he walked out of the house. The businessman stopped him and called out: "Don't forget your dog!"

Date:

Topic:

It chased the cat!

Simple past of the regular verbs

- 2 Read the story again and number the pictures in the correct order.

Do you think the story is true or false? Why?

- 3 Read these verbs and check the meaning of any new ones. Write 12 verbs regular in your notebook

• answer • arrive • ask • behave • call • carry
• chase • decide • discover • drop • finish
• follow • happen • hate • hurry • jump • like
• listen • look • love • notice • open • order
• pick • realize • remember • reply • start
• stay • stop • talk • taste • turn • walk
• want • watch