

Vocabulary: feelings

EXERCISE 1. Drag each word next to their synonym or definition.

1 thrilled		full of energy
2 delighted		happy, merry
3 excited		very happy and very nervous
4 energetic		happily anticipating something pleasant
5 cheerful		very pleasantly surprised, pleased
6 shocked		very unpleasantly surprised, disgusted
7 annoyed		sad or angry
8 anxious		very sad and unhappy
9 terrified		very scared
10 apathetic		worried and nervous
11 miserable		bored, without energy
12 upset		displeased, bothered

EXERCISE 2. Select the words from the list which have the sound /aɪ/.

miserable delighted upset annoyed shocked cheerful energetic anxious terrified apathetic thrilled excited

EXERCISE 3. Select the words from the list which end in the sound /t/.

terrified delighted annoyed shocked thrilled excited

EXERCISE 4. Fill in the gaps in these sentences with words from the list 1 to 12 in exercise 1. There may be more than one correct answer, but write only one word in each gap.

- a) She felt when her teacher predicted she was bound to get an A in all her exams.
- b) He felt a bit about his dog when he whistled to it and it failed to come running as usual.
- c) He felt really after missing the last bus because he had to walk three miles in the pouring rain.
- d) They felt more and more as the date of their school trip to Italy approached.
- e) He is a very child, always running, jumping and climbing fences and trees.
- f) She was very when a car ran over her cat.
- g) He gets very every time his little brother misplaces his books.
- h) When we heard the details about the corruption case we were really at the way the government had tried to cover it up.
- i) The storm raged all night; the little children felt every time lightning lit up their room and thunder made the walls shake.
- j) He was feeling depressed and He decided he couldn't be bothered to get out of bed yet, although it was nearly midday.
- k) She felt when her aunt arrived from Paris and told her she had brought her a lovely gift.
- l) It was a lovely, cool morning, the first day of my holidays. I was feeling very as I walked to the greengrocer's that day.

EXERCISE 5. Copy the words in red in exercise 4 next to their synonyms.

.....	a shop that sells fruit and vegetables
.....	came nearer, got closer (in space or in time)
.....	collide with (a pedestrian or an animal)
.....	did not
.....	found something too hard or boring to do.
.....	hide, try to prevent something from becoming known
.....	low wall, often made of wooden stakes
.....	leaves something far from its usual place
.....	made loud, angry noises
.....	present, as in "a birthday present"
.....	sure, without a doubt
.....	torrential, abundant