

YES / NO QUESTIONS

Mr Hofman was interviewed by Luisa Scott, a reporter from American Art Collector Magazine. Read the questions carefully and do the exercises below.

A. Write the tense of the verb next to each sentence.

1. "Are you from the Netherlands?"
2. "Did you make the Giant Rubber Duck?"
3. "Do you travel a lot?"
4. "Has the duck ever travelled with you?"
5. "Have you ever been to China?"
6. "Was the duck popular in China?"
7. "Have you ever had an accident with the duck?"
8. "Had it rained a lot?"
9. "Are you working on a new project?"
10. "Can you talk about the project?"
11. "Is the duck travelling with you now?"
12. "Is there a permanent version of the duck anywhere?"
13. "May I ask you one more question?"
14. "Will the duck become popular all over the world?"

B. Choose the correct alternative.

1. The reporter asked Mr Hofman if he IS / WAS / WERE from the Netherlands.
2. The reporter asked Mr Hofman if HE HAD MADE / HAD HE MADE the Giant Rubber Duck.
3. The reporter asked Mr Hofman whether HE TRAVELED / DID HE TRAVEL a lot.
4. The reporter wanted to know if the duck HAS / HAD ever travelled with Mr Hofman.
5. The reporter wanted to know WEATHER / WHETHER Mr Hofman had ever been to China.
6. The reporter asked Mr Hofman if the duck HAS / HAD been popular in China.
7. The reporter asked Mr Hofman if he EVER HAD / HAD EVER HAD an accident with the duck.

C. Complete the reported questions.

8. The reporter asked Mr Hofman whether a lot.
9. The reporter wanted to know if Mr Hofman on a new project.
10. The reporter wanted to know whether Mr Hofman about the project.
11. The reporter wanted to know whether then.
13. The reporter wanted to know
14. The reporter asked Mr Hofman all over the world.