The FUTURE: PREDICTIONS

Will/won't - might/might not - may/may not

1) Read the statements. How likely is it that these things will happen? Drag the examples in the correct columns.

a. She might lose the tennis match.

b. I don't think I will ever travel into space.

c. We might not finish the project on time.

d. They won't complete the work by Friday.

e. We may be able to go camping.

f. Of course, I may not get the job.

g. He'll get there before lunchtime.

Certain	Not sure

2) Complete the sentences with will, won't, might, might not

a. I know for sure that Fatma _____ come to the barbecue - she promised she would.

b. Gabriel _____be home by six o'clock - it depends how much work he has to do.

c. I think Danny _____ come to the cinema today. He's too busy! He definitely _____ come with us on a Tuesday. He only goes out at the weekend

d. I'm sure Victor _____ pass his exam. He's so clever and he's been studying so hard.

e. We _____ go to the park for a picnic, although it depends on the weather.

f. I may visit Fernanda this evening, so I probably _____ come to the concert after all.

g. Don't worry, we _____ definitely get to the restaurant on time!

h. The sky looks blue and clear – It_____ rain today!

i. Our project is going quite well, so we think it _____be a success.