

1 Read and match. Listen and check.

Let's read and listen!

1

I'm not very good at playing handball, but I want to be in the school team.

2

I'm not very good at spelling in English, but I want to pass my exam.

3

I'm not very good at making cakes, but I want to make a cake for my mum's birthday.

- a I can practise spelling difficult words.
- b I can ask my big sister to play with me.
- c My dad's good at cooking. I can ask him for help.

2 Read. Write true or false.

The British Library in London

IMAGINE YOU ARE A LIBRARIAN IN THIS FAMOUS LIBRARY

The British Library is a very big and important place. You probably think it's only got books. You're wrong! It's got more than 150 million different items, including maps, drawings, magazines and music, in all different languages. It's an amazing place.

Do you know?

It's got more than 4 million maps and 8 million stamps!

WOW!

You can see an example of the world's first writing. It's more than 3,000 years old.

Chinese Oracle Bones

- 1 The British Library is in London. true
- 2 The British Library is very small. _____
- 3 It's got lots of different things, including books, music and drawings. _____
- 4 Everything in the library is in English. _____
- 5 It's got a collection of four maps. _____
- 6 You can see very old writing. _____