

SINCE, FOR, IN / ALREADY, STILL, YET

1. Write "for" or "since" next to each time expression.

- | | |
|-----------------------|------------------------|
| a. _____ two hours | g. _____ I was a child |
| b. _____ a long time | h. _____ Christmas |
| c. _____ this morning | i. _____ five weeks |
| d. _____ nine o'clock | j. _____ 30 minutes |
| e. _____ one month | k. _____ a moment |
| f. _____ 2003 | l. _____ yesterday |

2. Match the "for" and "since" sentence halves together.

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☐ I've lived in my... | ☐ Winter. |
| ☐ I haven't seen my sister for... | ☐ To the cinema since last month |
| ☐ I have studied English since I... | ☐ For ten years |
| ☐ I have worn glasses... | ☐ Was 7 years old |
| ☐ I've had this bag since... | ☐ House since I was a child |
| ☐ I haven't been ... | ☐ Two months |

3. Complete the sentences using “still”, “already” or “yet”

- a. I have _____ done my homework.
- b. I _____ haven't had breakfast.
- c. I have worked out _____.
- d. I haven't traveled to the beach _____.
- e. He _____ hasn't paid the bills.
- f. I haven't taken out my dog _____.