

AS or LIKE

Read the examples and match them with the uses of AS and LIKE

My dad works as a teacher.	Some European countries like France have pristine beaches.	She lives in the same city as me.	As it was raining, we stayed at home.
This apartment block is as secure as the leisure complex.	What's your grandma like?	This perfume smells like chicken!

AS	LIKE
- To describe a job or role - After the same (age/colour/place) - To make comparisons (as+ adjective as) = BECAUSE	- When asking someone to describe a person or thing - To say that something or someone is OR appears similar to something/ someone else - To give an example
COMPARE!
As your father, I'll help you as much as I can. (The one speaking is the father)	Like your father, I'll help you as much as I can (The speaker is not the father but wishes to act in a similar way to the father.)

Complete with AS or LIKE (some of the uses are not listed above)

1. She works _____ a teacher (it's her job).
2. I'm very _____ my mother.
3. Julie loves mangoes as much _____ I do.
4. He arrived _____ I was leaving.
5. He works in a bank, _____ his father.
6. I used a tea towel _____ an oven glove and I burned it!
7. Your perfume smells _____ flowers.
8. _____ it was cold, I took a scarf.
9. He works _____ a hairdresser (it's his job).
10. That woman looks _____ my grandmother.
11. Please do it _____ me.
12. She hates chocolate as much _____ John.
13. _____ the other students, Paul failed the exam.
14. London is just as busy _____ Tokyo.
15. She often plays sports, _____ tennis or football.
16. Amanda works _____ a lawyer (it's her job).
17. This room is just as hot _____ the other room.
18. You look _____ your sister.
19. She studied really hard, _____ us.
20. We are as intelligent _____ you